India front-runner in PPP race

- World Bank Report:

- India top recipient of PPP investment during 2008-13
- Private participation in 2011 was mostly concentrated in just one country – India
- Attracted 98% of investment in South Asian region

- Asian Development Bank: Infrascope Report of EIU (of Economist, UK) states:

- India positioned in same league as Korea & Japan in implementation of PPP projects; only UK & Australia are ahead
- Government agencies have a relatively high level of proficiency in PPP projects
- Risk allocation has been improving due to introduction of MCAs
- Initiatives such as VGF and IIFCL have enabled greater participation of private finance in infrastructure

- Model Documents:

- Drafted after extensive interaction with leading experts, financial institutions, prospective lenders, legal consultants, technical experts and relevant Government organisations
- Based on international best practices and, therefore, acceptable to foreign and domestic investors and lenders
- Incorporate the principles of project finance
- Went through several rounds of inter-ministerial consultations
- Vetted by reputed law firms
